ROBBERY OF AMERICANS.

The Situation in General at the Latest Moment.

TELEGRAMS TO THE NEW YORK HERALD.

The following special despatch to the HERALD has been received from our correspondent in Matamoros:—

MATAMOROS, June 24, 1872.

General Ceballos telegraphs from Saltillo today, that His Excellency President Juarez died on the 18th instant, of an attack of apoplexy.

General Rocha reports by telegraph, of a still later moment of date, from Monterey to the commander of this plaza, confirming the news of the death of Juarez. Rocha states that "Benito Juarez died in the night, from an attack of apoplexy, which seized him at five o'clock in the evening of the 18th of July."

RECEPTION OF THE NEWS BY THE PEOPLE.

The news forwarded by Rocha from Monterey was received by all classes with astonishment, and was not credited until it was confirmed by a second despatch from the same source.

HONOR TO THE MEMORY OF THE DEAD CHIEF.

Rocha directed that the national flags and all the government ensigns should be placed at half-mast in respect to the memory of the deceased Chief Magistrate.

THE EXECUTIVE SESSION.

The Presidency of the republic devolves on Lerdo de Tejada, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, and until recently, Secretary of Foreign Affairs in President Juarez's Cabinet, but lately in opposition to the government, and regarded as sympathizing with the revolutionists. Although he remained in the city of Mexico he took no active part with the insurgents.

Tejada will act as President until the Congress orders an election to fill the vacancy.

CONFLICT AND BATTLES IN THE FIELD AND CITIES.

There is a rumor prevailing to the effect that General Rocha has been defeated at Salinas, distant six leagues from Monterey.

General Martinez is reported to have occupied San Luis on the 14th instant without resistance.

Guadalupe has pronounced against Governor Corona, who was driven out by the inhabitants.

SENSELESS ACTION.

The state of siege which has been maintained here at Matamoros was raised, and the National Guard disbanded yesterday.

PLUNDER OF FOREIGNERS.

Four Americans, who left this place yesterday in private conveyances for Monterey, were robbed within ten leagues of the city.

General Martinez's Assault on San Luis and its Repulse by the National Guards—Government Success on the Frontier—Plans of Trevino and Quiroga.

MATAMOROS, July 23, 1872.

The government forces having been generally withdrawn from San Luis Potosi when General Rocha advanced on Monterey, the revolutionary General Martinez took the opportunity to attack San Luis with about six hundred cavalry, but after a fight of several hours he was repulsed by the National Guards and citizens, with considerable loss.
General Rocha has despatched a cavalry force in pursuit of Martinez. Both parties at Monterey are inactive.

The revolution in the State of Tamaulipas having been suppressed, the whole frontier of the States of Nuevo Leon and Coahuila in possession of the government, leaving the insurgents without a port or single point of importance, and the country being practically pacified, the military authorities today issued a proclamation raising the state of siege, annulling martial law, abolishing the passport system and other military restrictions which have prevailed for several months and restoring the civil rule.

Colonel Ramirez's regiment arrived from Monterey this morning, and will occupy the fortifications, relieving the National Guard, which will be disbanded.

General Ceballos is expected soon to assume the command of the line of the Rio Grande. General Rocha, at Monterey, will operate against the revolutionists still in the mountains.

TREVINO AND QUIROGA.

It is believed that the commission sent by Generals Trevino and Quiroga to the city of Mexico have made terms with the government, and that the revolutionary chiefs will submit to the authority of President Juarez or leave the country after disbanding their followers.

Railroad Speculation from the Capital to California and Vice Versa—Robbery, Murder and Executions.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 24, 1872.

The steamer Montana brings advices from Guaymas and Mazatlan.

The Legislature of Sonora has ratified the concession to a California company for a railroad from Guaymas to Tucson, Arizona, and United States Consul Wilbur has started for the city of Mexico with the documents for the signature of President Juarez.

Straggling bands of revolutionist highwaymen, taking advantage of the return of Pesquero to Sonora, and Rocha's march eastward, occupied Culiacan committing robberies and murders in the interior of Sonora.

The federal troops have shot thirty-eight of them in Mazatlan.

FIVE THOUSAND NEGRO LISTENERS.

Ex-Governor Orr's Letter from South Carolina—Grant and Greeley Republicans.

RICHMOND, Va., July 24, 1872.

This has been a great day for the republican party of Richmond. Never before were so many colored voters seen assembled together as filled the City Springs Park this afternoon to a perfect jam.

It was a splendid place for such a gathering, as the ground gently slopes towards a common centre from all sides, forming a natural amphitheatre. The stand was situated at the centre point, and the surrounding hill sides were covered with the thick mass of human beings. Great preparations had been made in advance for this meeting which was to be a grand and Wilson ratification demonstration, a sort of starting point from which to date the beginning of the canvass in Virginia. The colored men from all the country around had been pressed into service to swell the ranks, and they were all present, their expenses probably being defrayed out of the campaign fund.

All the prominent white republicans of the State were also in attendance.

The meeting was organized by appointing James H. Clements, Postmaster of Portsmouth, chairman, and the proceedings were fully inaugurated by music, a band being present, which played the national airs. The stand was handsomely decorated with flags and banners, and the colored people, having arrayed themselves in their best attire, everything assumed the appearance of a grand holiday occasion. The stand was filled with prominent white and colored republicans, many of them visitors from abroad. Among those from North were Senator Henry Wilson and Mr. Fred Douglass. After the meeting had been fully organized the presiding officer

INTRODUCED FRED DOUGLASS, who delivered a very conservative and well tempered speech, which is very highly spoken of by the white people of the city. The following is a brief synopsis of his remarks. He commenced by a brief allusion to the days of his own life which were passed in slavery, and claimed to be a Virginian, at least by descent, and a Southerner by birth and preference.

He never would have left the South but for a desire in his, as in every breast, to enjoy the blessings of life, liberty and happiness. In response to this instinct he had become a runaway, and, as a consequence, had enlisted in a lifelong fight for freedom. He had been charged with life-long hostility to a cherished institution of Virginia, and the charge was true, for he was a bitter opponent of slavery; but he claimed that he had done nothing that any white man would not have done under similar circumstances. He had, in opposing slavery, only followed out the line of conduct marked out by Thomas Jefferson and George Washington.

He was a Virginian, and he as a Virginian, was lovers of liberty. He rejoiced that he could now stand as free man, and he rejoiced that he could now stand as a free man, and he rejoiced that he could now stand as a free man, and he rejoiced that he could now stand as a free man, and he rejoiced that he could now stand as a free man, and he
